Abstract

The Mongols as archived by Átà-Malik Al-JuvaynĪ in his book Jahān-Gushāy (The History of the World'sCoqueror)

Ekhlas Al-Eidie

M'utah University, 2008

Jahān-Gushāy is considered one of the oldest and most important historical and culture al resource on the Mongols Age.

Not only does the book contain a summary of the Mongols history before its establishment as a country, but also the history of their Khanat from the age of Genghis Khan until the rule of Mengü Qa'an in 654 H (1256 AD). Because of the importance of this historical period the researcher chose to study and analyze this topic according to Al-Juvayni's historical point views.

This study is divided into an introduction and four chapters:

First, the researcher introduces Áta-Malik Al-JuvaynĪ and his book Jahān-Gushāy. The first chapter focuses on Al-Juwayni's perceptions of Genghis Khan from his first appearance until 615 H (1218 AD). The relationship between Genghis Khan and Al-Khuwarazmiyya empire is analyzed in the second chapter. The third chapter discusses Genghis Khan's successors until 658 H (1259 AD). The final section evaluates Al-Juvayni's methods of writing Jahān-Gushāy. The researcher concludes her study with findings, appendices, and a bibliography of references.
